

Erie Times-News: Sept. 13, 2008; ViewPoint 6A

Food for thought:

Good cooks and good programs have joined forces, thanks to a partnership between the Erie Homes for Children and Adults Inc. and Mercyhurst North East. The initiative gives people with intellectual disabilities a chance to take college-level culinary classes and earn certificates.

It's not just about cooking. Students get a chance to experience college life while developing skills.